

Upon entering junior year, students will have:

- had an opportunity to join National Honor Society
- prepared to take the SAT exam in the fall/spring of Junior year
- started researching colleges/universities
- prepared to take/retake Keystone Exams junior year
- considered taking online college courses and/or AP courses during junior year
- started researching scholarship and grant opportunities
- had the opportunity to participate in a summer mission trip

During junior year, students will be able to:

- take the SAT and ACT exams
- create a College Board account to keep track of test scores
- attend college fairs
- complete a career/interest inventory to use for college planning purposes
- take Advanced Placement courses (AP)
- take Dual-Enrollment courses for both high school and college credit
- take Keystone Exams in Biology, Algebra, and Literature (if not passed in earlier years)
- participate in Westinghouse Science Honors Institute
- serve on Student Council
- become a member of National Honor Society
- achieve RAM status and earn certain privileges
- use technology to enhance the educational process
- attend the high school dinner dance
- participate in the annual Reformation Bowl
- serve as a chapel buddy
- volunteer through various mission projects (Blessing Board, RLS Kindergarten, Concordia visits summer camp counselor)
- participate in extracurricular activities including, but not limited to, musicals, plays, high school robotics, and athletics

Upon exiting junior year, students will:

- possess a list of college scholarship opportunities and continue researching additional opportunities
- prepare to take the SAT exam in the fall of senior year if needed/desired
- continue researching colleges/universities
- consider taking online dual-enrollment college courses and/or AP courses the following year